

You can help! Create a Facebook Fundraiser for end of year charitable contributions

Helping the AAUW Tahoe Nevada mission during the holiday charitable giving season is easier than ever on social media. Facebook fundraisers allow any Facebook user with a valid account to raise money to support their favorite causes.

Supporting AAUW Tahoe Nevada with your own donations is amazing, but sharing your commitment to AAUW Tahoe Nevada with your friends and family takes your giving to the next level. Creating and sharing a personal fundraiser on Facebook for the month of December helps AAUW Tahoe Nevada spread the word and support our mission of providing college scholarships for girls.

Donors can rest assured their money is going to a great and verified cause just by looking at your fundraising page. A box on your page shows AAUW Tahoe Nevada has been verified by Facebook as a 501c3 nonprofit and includes a link to our reviewed gold level profile on GuideStar, the largest source of information on nonprofit organizations. To make it super easy, we've added below detailed instructions, some FAQs and links to sample Facebook cover images. If you have questions, email communications@tahoenvaaauw.org.

FAQs

Yes we do get the money As part of being a recipient of money donated through Facebook, AAUW went through a vetting process with the company. This assures anyone giving to charitable causes on Facebook that their money is going to approved charities with verified IRS nonprofit status and valid banking accounts.

Yes it's still tax deductible Anyone donating via Facebook to a charity receives an automatic email from Facebook that can be used for tax purposes. We encourage anyone giving to AAUW Tahoe Nevada to include their email in their donation submission so we too may include a personal thank you.

No there is no Facebook minimum to raise . . . or maximum You can set the bar low or high for the amount you want to raise.

Yes it can be anonymous Donors can opt to make themselves and the amounts donated anonymous.

Yes we do know it's your campaign AAUW can download transactions from Facebook and see per donation whose fundraiser campaign is credited.

Yes we do have oversight We hope everyone will use these fundraisers for the intended purpose and in proper form. However, we do have the means to delete any fundraiser for AAUW that does not meet the standards of our community, and we may report abuse to our friends at Facebook. We also may reach out to individual fundraisers if what they created merely needs some tweaking to meet our mission standards.
